On January 29, 2026, an online conference will be held on the topic: "Uzbekistan – Pakistan: Strategic Partnership, Connectivity and Sustainable Development in a Changing World." The conference is timed to coincide with the upcoming visit of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Shavkat Mirziyoyev, to the Islamic Republic of Pakistan.

The event is organized by the Institute for Strategic and Regional Studies under the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan and the Institute of Regional Studies, Islamabad. Representatives of government bodies, leading analytical centers, research institutions and educational organizations from both countries will take part in the conference.

Participants will discuss the prospects of Uzbekistan – Pakistan cooperation, focusing on strengthening political dialogue, expanding economic ties and industrial cooperation, developing transport and logistics infrastructure, and initiatives in the field of human capital.

Special emphasis will be placed on developing practical proposals capable of giving a new impetus to the bilateral partnership and unlocking the potential for the countries' joint development. The recommendations are expected to make a substantial contribution to the preparation and content of the upcoming high-level negotiations.
