

President arrives in Moscow

On 19 November, President Shavkat Mirziyoyev arrived in Russia.

Aide to the President of the Russian Federation Maxim Oreshkin and other officials met the President of Uzbekistan at Moscow Airport Vnukovo-2.

President Shavkat Mirziyoyev left for the Kremlin for talks with President Vladimir Putin. At the meeting, the leaders of the two countries will discuss issues of further strengthening the strategic partnership and alliance, the development of interaction in various directions between Uzbekistan and Russia.

Source