

Shavkat Mirziyoyev departs for Bukhara

On 21 January, President Shavkat Mirziyoyev departed for Bukhara region to become acquainted with the development of the region and the life of the population.

The President will visit companies operating in agro-industry, textile production, information technologies, medical services, and become familiar with construction work in cities and districts.

Source