

Meeting with representatives of the Friedrich Ebert Foundation

ISRS held meeting with the delegation of the Friedrich Ebert Foundation (FRG).

The Foundation established in 1925 and the oldest political and one of the social democratic direction foundations in Germany. The key activity of the Ebert Foundation is the implementation of the ideals and values of social democracy: freedom, justice, solidarity.

During the conversation, the new head of the regional office of the Foundation, Christoph More was introduced by Dr. Sonja Schirmbek, instead of Henrieta Kiefer, who completed her mission in Central Asia.

At the meeting, the parties noted with the satisfaction of the establishment of a partnership and a wide range of issues of mutual interest between ISRS and the Ebert Foundation.

It was highlighted that the joint activities which implemented by the ISRS and the Foundation, contribute the implementation of reforms and transformations in our country, as well as the strengthening of bilateral relations between Uzbekistan and Germany.

At the same time, the parties agreed to continue mutually beneficial cooperation, to organize new joint events in the near future, as well as to publish analytical materials.
