

Experts of ISRS are participating at an international conference in India

Representatives of ISRS attending at international workshop on the topic of “Transnational Terrorism: evolving threats and responses” on the 7th and 8th of November.

The event is organized by United Service of Institution (USI) of India. Leading experts and officials from over 20 world countries are invited to the event, including India, USA, Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Myanmar, Vietnam, Nigeria, Syria and other countries.

The main topic of conference are modern challenges and threats, as well as exchange views on countering international terrorism.