

The President leaves for Kashkadarya

The pandemic notwithstanding, efforts are in full swing in Uzbekistan to restore and develop the economy, improve the life of the people. New enterprises and residential areas are being built across the nation.

President Shavkat Mirziyoyev has left for Kashkadarya region this morning to get acquainted with the progress of those efforts.

Source