

International seminar organized by the Institute of International Relations and the Korean Institute of International Economic Policy

The Institute for Strategic and Regional Studies under the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan together with the Korean Institute of International Economic Policy organized a joint seminar on «Prospects for the joint prosperity of the Republic of Uzbekistan and the Republic of Korea».

The main purpose of the event was to discuss the current state and prospects for development of Uzbek-Korean relations, as well as to develop new proposals for further strengthening the strategic partnership between the two countries on the eve of the visit of the President of the Republic of Korea Moon Jae-In to Uzbekistan.

The seminar was attended by leading South Korean experts, representatives of embassy and companies of the Republic of Korea, accredited in Tashkent, as well as representatives of ministries, departments and research institutions of the Republic of Uzbekistan.

During the seminar, two sides exchanged of views on the priorities of the foreign, trade and economic policies of the Republic of Uzbekistan and the Republic of Korea at a new stage, as well as the emerging opportunities and prospects for deepening bilateral cooperation. Participants of the workshop developed number of proposals and recommendations, aimed at expanding bilateral cooperation between the Republic of Uzbekistan and the Republic of Korea.

The main points of the speeches of Uzbek and Korean experts published in a special edition.

